Description :

Prsentation de l'diteurA Retrieval Artist dies of a virus, yet his colleague, Miles Flint, believes the death is not an accident. Police detective Noelle DeRicci knows that the death of a young woman in the Moon's prestigious Extreme Marathon is not an accident. It soon becomes clear that both deaths are connected. Flint and DeRicci find themselves in their own race, one against time and a certain kind of madness that could threaten everything they know and love.Booklist calls Extremes "an exemplary futuristic detective thriller." RT Book s says, "This futuristic tale breaks new ground as a space police procedural and should appeal to science fiction and mystery fans." But Locus Magazine covers it all: "Extremes is simultaneously thriller, deftly plotted detective story, and SF complete with a form of Mad Scientist. Like the best of those genres, it also features well-drawn characters whose various viewpoints, areas of expertise, moral choices, and personal dilemmas all add to the rich mix."Extremes is sophisticated storytelling that works all the way, a futuristic detective/PI novel with the blend of contemporary and timeless relevance only the best writers can achieve.LocusThe hunt for truth and the struggle for survival move at a brisk back and come to a bang-up conclusion.AnalogThis novel is definitely recommended for fans of the series but will stand alone for those who have not read the previous novel or novella.KliattGood all aroundan exemplary futuristic detective thriller.BooklistAn inventive plot and complex, conflicted characters increases the appeal of Kristine Kathryn Ruschs Extremes. This futuristic tale breaks new ground as a space police procedural and should appeal to science fiction and mystery fans.Romantic Times Book ClubPrsentation de l'diteurA Retrieval Artist dies of a virus, yet his colleague, Miles Flint, believes the death is not an accident.
