Description :

Prsentation de l'diteurThe tenants of 28 Barbary Lane have fled their cozy nest for adventures far afield. Mary Ann Singleton finds love at sea with a forgetful stranger, Mona Ramsey discovers her doppelgnger in a desert whorehouse, and Michael Tolliver bumps into his favorite gynecologist in a Mexican bar.

Meanwhile, their venerable landlady takes the biggest journey of allwithout ever leaving home.Revue de presse"Like those of Dickens and Wilkie Collins, Armistead Maupin's novels have all appeared originally as serials... it is the strength of this approach, with its fantastic adventures and astonishingly contrived coincidences, that makes these novels charming and compelling" (Literary)"San Francisco is fortunate in having a chronicler as witty and likeable as Armistead Maupin" (Independent)"Maupin is a richly gifted comic author" (Observer)"A consummate entertainer... It is Maupin's Dickensian gift to be able to render love convincingly" (Times Literary Supplement)"I have read Maupin's first two books three times already and shall probably read them again before too long. I love them for very much the same qualities that make me love the novels of Dickens" (Christopher Isherwood)Prsentation de l'diteurThe tenants of 28 Barbary Lane have fled their cozy nest for adventures far afield.
